From the Senior Chaplain

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”
John 10:10

Ask most people their idea of a full or successful life and their answer would probably point to health and material possessions. After all, who could possibly put a price tag on good health? No one denies its importance. Material possessions bring a sense of comfort and security. I suppose we tend to take them for granted. But when they’re lost, many people feel they have lost everything. I have always admired the people who have rebuilt after a tragic loss. It’s a powerful witness of strength and courage.

In spite of all our perceptions of the “full” or “abundant” life, Jesus promises life to the full. I believe His idea of fullness is often quite different than ours. His fullness is not subject to a doctor’s diagnosis or the current interest rate. Here’s what I think of when I think of the Lord’s fullness.

First, life to the full is the assurance of salvation and a living fellowship with Jesus Christ. The songwriter said, “And He walks with me and He talks with me.” The fullness of Christ is the forgiveness of sin and the freedom of guilt. It is the incredible blessing of living each day in the awareness of His grace and mercy. That sounds like life to the full to me!

Second, life to the full means living according to “the” promise. What’s “the” promise? It is this, “And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose.” Think of it. Whatever challenging thing you face right now, God is working for your good. That sounds like life to the full to me!

Third, nothing shall separate us from the love of Christ. That’s right—sickness, poverty, death, hardship, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the Father’s love. That sounds like life to the full to me!

Blessings and fullness,
Len

Minister: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God’s love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Glory to God. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving (The Hymnal, pp. 13-14)

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

These are holy hands, He’s given us holy hands; He works through these hands and so these hands are holy. These are holy hands, He’s given us holy hands; He works through these hands and so these hands are holy. We are standing on holy ground. And I know that there are angels all around. Let us praise—Jesus now, We are standing in His presence on holy ground.

Invitation

Confession and Pardon

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Chapel Announcements

A Time for Celebration, “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.” At once they left their nets and followed him (Matthew 4:19-20).

Today we celebrate the commissioning of [Timothy Bader, Cathy Butler, Gary Gofredson, Tom Greene and Randy Grogan], caring members of our congregation who have heard the call of the Lord and left their nets to follow him: They have the spiritual gifts to be [Stephen Leaders/Stephen Ministers], and they have participated in many hours of training learning how to carry out this ministry for the Lord. Now they stand poised, as the apostles were on Pentecost, ready to begin this caring ministry in our midst. As we commission them and send them forth to minister, let us thank God for the love and the generosity that inspired their response to God’s call, and let us pray for the success of this caring ministry that they bring to our community.

Welcome!

Big Canoe Chapel is a multi-denominational congregation united in our faith in Jesus Christ as Lord. The Chapel gladly welcomes anyone desiring to become a regular, associate, or fellowship member. Please fill out a membership information card found in the pew card holder and place it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher. The pastor will call this week and schedule a time to meet and answer any questions regarding chapel membership.

Sympathy

The Chapel family extends its sympathy to Peg Ewing for the loss of her brother, Dick Roy, who passed away May 26th in New Jersey. He was 82 years old and Peg’s only sibling.
