From the Senior Chaplain

This morning we are delighted to welcome Dr. Al Myers to the pulpit at Big Canoe Chapel. Al is no stranger to many of the people at the Chapel. To those who don't know Al, you will discover a man who is warm, personable, and loving. He is truly a man after God's own heart.

Al served as pastor at Conyers First Presbyterian Church for many years. His legacy at that church continues to be celebrated. We are thankful for Al's willingness to serve in the Chapel today. I know you will be blessed to hear the message the Lord has placed upon Al's heart.

I am absent today because of my involvement in our Chapel family retreat. Teri Sawyer and I are leading almost 30 children, youth, and adults for the week-end in Pine Mountain. We travel back this morning so I trust you will pray for us as we return. As I write this column we are preparing to leave and we are praying for a week-end of extraordinary spiritual discovery. We are believing God to meet us with in the depth of His wonderful love and grace. Thank you for your prayers.

We are just a few weeks away from the 25th Broyles Missions Conference. This 4 day event is always one of the mountaintop spiritual experiences of the year. The committee has been planning and praying for the Conference and I hope you have been doing the same. I am convinced we will hear the voice of God challenging us to truly be His hands in a world that needs to hear the Gospel and see the love of Christ. It is our call as the church and we respond in faith.

“Father, glorify Thy name.” Start with me.

Blessings and peace,

Len
