From the Senior Chaplain

This year at Big Canoe Chapel we as members of the body, the arms and feet of Jesus Christ have the distinct privilege and high responsibility of sharing God's gifts with this Chapel and the communities here in these magical mountains of North Georgia.

We each are given special and unique talents that we are called on as Christians to share with our community, our world and those less fortunate. This Big Canoe Chapel has always since inception with its outreach to both those inside our gates and those in need in Pickens and Dawson counties, been in the "Business of Sharing". It is our duty, our charge, and our responsibility because we are blessed and it is our genuine pleasure and privilege.

Dr. Billy Graham from his mountaintop in North Carolina reminds us that we as Christians must not be a reservoir but a flowing channel of God's gifts. A reservoir stores up water and lets only a small portion for enjoyment. A channel is a free flowing outlet which God provides that we may willingly and lovingly share with others and the less fortunate.

Remember during this October Stewardship season, "We can't out give God".....Everything we possess on this earth belongs to God. God's gifts to us of our daily bread and our material possessions are not for us but for others.

Atlanta Pastor Andy Stanley reminds us in his new book How to be Rich, "My hope is not in my riches but in Him who richly provides" Daily we can and must truly and visibly demonstrate and testify to God's love for us and honor the sacrifice of His son on the cross and his resurrection for the forgiveness of our sins. Our mission is now is to exercise and honor this Privilege of Sharing of our time, talents and treasure with Big Canoe Chapel and its outreach to our special mountain community.

We Worship....We Pray.....We Serve....We Share
Blessings.....Tarby Bryant, Chair of Big Canoe Finance Committee
