Confession and Pardon

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Minister: Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Glory to God. Amen

The Great Thanksgiving (The Hymnal, pp. 13-14)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Giving the Bread and the Cup

* Hymn (Sheet) "Share His Love" SULLIVAN

* Benediction Rev. Walker

* Benediction Response (593, refrain) HERE I AM, LORD

people in my heart."

The Privilege of Sharing

We are all fortunate to be able to worship at the Big Canoe Chapel. In this multi-denominational setting we have a unique opportunity to come together to form the Body of Christ.

Over the years the Big Canoe Chapel has benefited from the gifted spiritual leadership of great Senior Chaplains. When we first began to attend worship services at the Chapel Vernon Broyles was preaching and now we are blessed to have Len Walker. The work of our congregation has also been advanced by selfless, willing, and capable lay leadership. The Chapel has proven itself to be a place where all of us can grow in our faith.

Another defining feature of the Big Canoe Chapel has been the generosity of the congregation. Scripture informs us how to give and well defines the strong culture and spirit of giving at the Big Canoe Chapel.

2 Corinthians 9:7 states “Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”

And from Matthew 6:2 “So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others.”

We have discovered over the years that when you give generously the gift returns to the giver many fold. The Big Canoe Chapel has abundantly demonstrated this principle. From support for nearby organizations such as the Good Samaritan Health and Wellness Center and Habitat for Humanity in Jasper to assistance for faith communities in Nicaragua and ministering to orphans in Russia and Thailand, the Chapel has reached out and provided support for building Christian communities.

We encourage you to prayerfully consider what you can do to financially support the work of the Big Canoe Chapel. There are few other commitments that you can make in life that will provide you such satisfaction.

Lynne and Chuck Knapp

Congratulations!

David and Carlene Owen happily announce the birth of their grandson, Owen Hays Schechet, born September 17th to Allison Owen and husband Joel Schechet in Asheville, NC.

Thank you,

Ann Owens and family want to thank all those who contributed to the beautiful reception after Jim's memorial service. The many cards, e-mails, phone calls and visits sustained us during Jim's brief illness. This is truly a caring community; one that Jim loved very much.

Ann
