From the Senior Chaplain

With all due respect for the memory of Furman Bisher, I'm reminded of some Thanksgiving blessings that have shaped my life. Furman did this so well and I'm very hesitant to write it because I don't want to give the impression of attempting to match his journalistic genius. So, to begin, I am thankful for Furman Bisher and Jesse Outlar. As you can probably tell, my young mind was captivated by the sports pages of the old Journal and Constitution.

I'm thankful for the full house at campmeeting and the hurricane (literally) of activity. I'm thankful for the Brumby family and their gift of making a rocking chair. I'm thankful for Fresh Air Bar B Que and Brunswick Stew from Jackson. I'm thankful for having the experience of serving in the General Assembly. I have sympathy for those stuck in legislative "gridlock."

I'm thankful for writers like Philip Yancey, C.S. Lewis, A.W. Tozer, Dennis Kinlaw, and Robert Caro. I'm thankful for the perfect summer weather concerts at the Terraces. I'm thankful for the voice of Frankie Valli. I'm thankful for Christmas music sung by Perry Como. I'm thankful for the house lights that sparkle from the mountains in Big Canoe on a cold, still December night. I'm thankful I was able to enjoy the voices of Larry Munson and Caywood Ledford. I will even add the name of Al Ciraldo. I'm thankful for those Thanksgiving days of many years ago that were spent at Grant Field. Tech vs. Georgia freshman. "Strong legs will run so that weak legs may walk."

I'm thankful for Advent at the Chapel. I'm thankful to be able to sing, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today" on Easter morning. I'm thankful for caddies at East Lake. I'm thankful for the theme music of the Masters. I'm thankful for tee shots that are downwind to a wide fairway.

I'm thankful for my family and all the joy and love they bring. I'm thankful for all the wonderful vacations we've had including the breakdown in Alabama on the way to Destin. That's a long story. I'm thankful for Big Canoe Chapel and the generous hearts of each person.

I'm thankful we're on this wonderful journey together.

Selah,

Len

Chapel Announcements

Chapel Office will be closed for Thanksgiving Holiday, November 27th and November 28th.

Griefshare is a thirteen week support group to help those who are suffering from the loss of a loved one. We started on Oct. 6th and will end on Dec. 15th. At this time we will hear from special people who will help deal with the holidays. We come together on Jan. 5th and end on Jan. 19th. We will meet in Room 107 in the lower level of the Broyles Center from 5:00PM to 6:30PM. Contact Sandra Hintze (706.579.2248).

Please celebrate with the Big Canoe Chapel Women's Guild on Thursday, December 11th at 10:00 am in the Chapel for our Christmas program, "White Christmas." This year's concert features our own Teri Sawyer along with two sought-after vocalists from the Atlanta Opera, soprano Megan Mashburn and tenor John Young. The trio is sure to bring a smile and stir the spirit as they present the best-loved melodies of the season. The Christmas luncheon, catered by Flavours and complete with a lavish dessert centerpiece, will be served in the Broyles Center immediately following the program. Tickets are $25.00 and will be available at Chapel Stand Around this Sunday.

Christmas Collectors' Corner is Saturday, December 6th, right here in the Broyles Center. Select gently used Christmas Decorations for your home. Items will be on sale before and after the POA General Meeting. Doors will be open from 9am-10am and for two hours following the meeting. Proceeds will go to charities in Pickens and Dawson counties through the Big Canoe Chapel Women's Guild-Legacy of Caring.

WELCOME
