"Following in the Footsteps of the Reformation"

Chapel Pilgrimage 2015: Oct. 28—Nov. 5

The next Chapel Pilgrimage will be an exploration of the 1517 Reformation, Church history surrounding the reformation, the reformers themselves, and many of the places in Switzerland, France, and Germany where we can trace the footsteps of the reformers themselves. We explore the thinking of Martin Luther, John Calvin, Jan Hus, and Ulrich Zwingli and the ensuing reformed theologies that came out of the Reformation (Lutherans, Calvinists, Reformers, Anabaptists). We will begin our pilgrimage in Zurich, continue with a trip up the Rhine River from Basel to Amsterdam, with lectures on the documents that came out of the Reformation by guest lecturer Maxie Dunnam, Methodist minister, author of several dozen books, and recent editor of The Upper Room. We will be amazed at how we at Big Canoe Chapel have been formed and informed by this movement, and how, through those documents that came out of the Reformation, we have all been able to come back together serving One Lord.

You may pick up a brochure of the Pilgrimage in the Chapel Office for more information. Interested Pilgrims will meet with Rev. Lamar Helms in the Chapel Sunday, September 14, 11:45 am, following the second worship service.

"But he who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer that forgets but a doer that acts, he shall be blessed in his doing."

James 1:25

From the Senior Chaplain

The fall is a wonderful time of the year at Big Canoe although our recent temperatures remind us more of mid-July. But the change of the season is inevitable and with the change comes some rich ministry opportunities at Big Canoe Chapel. I trust you will find some area of involvement. I have discovered that when I am invested in the various means of grace like Bible study, prayer, worship, and fellowship there is an evident growth in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ.

We are only a few weeks away from the “Festival of Faith.” We will begin on Sunday morning, September 28 at the 9:00am worship service. You will be seeing reminders of this event and I trust you will be praying for Bob Tuttle as he prepares to lead us. Bob is one of my favorite people. He is a retired seminary professor and a powerful communicator of the truth of God’s word. Among his many published books is, Shortening the Leap, From Honest Doubt to Enduring Faith. It is a helpful resource for those who want to be a faithful and effective witness to ones with honest doubt and skepticism concerning the claims of Christ. We will make sure you have the opportunity to order a copy if you are interested.

Two weeks after the Festival of Faith, we will launch the stewardship campaign for fiscal year 2015. The theme of this year’s campaign is, “The Privilege of Sharing.” It is a theme coming from 2 Corinthians 8. Paul is commending the churches of Macedonia in their free and liberal offering to the work of the Kingdom throughout the world. In spite of the Macedonian churches suffering through extensive poverty, they were enthusiastic and gracious in their giving. Paul reminds the church at Corinth that the Macedonians, entirely on their own, pleaded with the apostle for “the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints.” What a testimony! May it be so with all the saints at Big Canoe Chapel. I know it will be.

Grace and peace,
Len

Welcome Guests!

Big Canoe Chapel is a multi-denominational congregation united in our faith in Jesus Christ as Lord. We’re dedicated to showing His love through worship, fellowship, outreach, and welcoming guests or those new to the community. For more information, please contact one of our chaplains or Stephen Ministers after the service, or call the Chapel office at 706.268.3203.

Please note:

- Hearing devices are available from an usher.
- The Nursery is available downstairs during the 9:00 & 10:30 am services.
- Remember to turn your cell phones back on at the end of the service!

Chapel Announcements

Big Canoe Chapel Women’s Guild...invites all women of Big Canoe and the surrounding communities to its September 11th meeting at 10:00 a.m. in the Broyles Center. “God’s Extravagant Grace” is the title of the presentation by Kim Lewis, Director of Pregnancy and Mentoring at Bartow Family Resources. She has served as Director of External Development and Communication for the Women’s League Bible Study Ministry and recently received her certificate as an Internationally Board Certified Biblical Counselor. Kim’s passion and purpose are to equip women to understand and apply God’s word to their lives and circumstances.

Guild members are asked to bring donations to this meeting of disposable diapers (sizes 4, 5, 6), wipes in refill packs or cans of dry baby formula to help support the pregnancy center.

Women’s Guild Fall Retreat. “Is There Anything More Amazing Than Grace?” Author Sharon Kiser Will answer that question at the Big Canoe Chapel Women’s Guild Fall Retreat at Amicalola Falls Lodge, on October 9th. Tickets ($25), which include lunch and entrance to the park, will be available at the September 11th Guild meeting and at Stand-Around on September 14th and 21st. Make your reservations now for this annual time of reflection and relaxation with women from the community.

Griefshare is a thirteen week support group to help those who are suffering from the loss of a loved one. We start on Oct. 6th and end on Dec. 15th. At this time we will hear from special people who will help you deal with the holidays. We come together on Jan. 5th and end on Jan. 19th. We will meet in Rm 107 in the lower level of the Broyles Center from 5:00PM to 6:30PM. Contact (Sandra Hintze at 706.579.2248).

Men’s Fellowship Breakfast...Join us September 20th at 8:00 am to have breakfast and to hear Bill Dyke, author of the “Decathlon Life.” “Decathlon Life” are guidelines in discovering God’s purposes and calling for post retirement living. Bill currently teaches “The Decathlon Life” at Emory University. The cost of breakfast is $10.00.

Congratulations

...to Dick and Pat Girdler on their 55th wedding anniversary. They celebrated this event on September 5th.
