

The Fifth Sunday after Epiphany

February 5, 2012

Today is Scout Sunday at Big Canoe Chapel and throughout the USA. We are recognizing the youth and adult leaders of the Boy Scouts of America for their contribution toward the development of boys into becoming responsible, trustworthy, helpful and reverent citizens of our nations. Each of the thousands of Scout Troops in America must have a sponsoring organization, which in many cases is a religious institution. Big Canoe Chapel sponsors Cub Pack 20, led by Cub Master Chris DeJarnett, and Troop 20, led by Scout Master David Peagler.

Since the fall of 1999 when Troup 20 was organized, it has had the privilege of leading 14 youth to the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in Scouting. Currently, we have 4 additional scouts who should reach this pinnacle in the next year or so.

We encourage any of you that have or know of boys that would benefit from the scouting experience to contact one of the adults in uniform today, or call the Chapel office. Opportunities in Cub Scouting begin with first graders and extend thru the 5th grade, where Boy Scouting picks up and extends thru age 17.

All member of the Chapel's Scouting units want to express their sincere thanks to all members of the Chapel family for their support of our activities thru a line item in the Youth budget, special gifts from individuals and Chapel groups, and especially for your support throughout the year and especially for this June as 8 youth and 2 adult leaders enjoy the annual week of Summer Camp @ Woodruff Scout Reservation just east of Blue Ridge, followed a week later as 5 of our older youth and 4 dads in the Troop travel to New Mexico for a ten day High Adventure hiking experience @ Philmont Scout Ranch.

Troop 20 Scouts are serving as the greeters and ushers for today's 10:30 am., service. Following the service, they will be assisting in distributing the pre-ordered BBQ in the Broyles' kitchen.

Participating scouts include: Cody Blackwell, Charles Burchett, Christopher Kaxmier, Connor and Turner Moranos, Sam and Zack Peagler, and Michael Stephens.

Join us for the Mission Conference kick-off dinner on February 16th-A Taste of Tuscany. This year's conference promises to be one of the best ever with wonderful presenting organizations, a Taste of Tuscany dinner, an award winning Gospel Praise Choir, a Paint Fest and so much more. Mark your calendars to attend February 16-19.

A Mission Prayer-Dear Lord of Glory and Grace-Forgive our sinfulness and hear our most earnest prayer. Give each of us the heart of Christ to reach the eternally lost! Give each of us the compassion of Christ to feel the pain of our sister and brother! Give each of the passion of Christ to be aggressive in our ministry! Give each of us the commitment of Christ to see our work through to the end! Please bless our Mission Conference, and we will be careful to give You all the Praise and Glory for all that You accomplish through us! Amen and Amen!

Be sure to pick up the Winter issue of our "Good News Chronicle," a newspaper highlighting our Christian Education Department! Available in Narthex and office!
