“You are indeed my rock and my fortress; for your name’s sake lead me and guide me.”

Psalm 31:3

Happy Mother's Day

In the United States, Mother's Day started nearly 150 years ago, when Anna Jarvis, an Appalachian homemaker, organized a day to raise awareness of poor health conditions in her community, a cause she believed would be best advocated by mothers. She called it "Mother's Work Day."

Fifteen years later, Julia Ward Howe, a Boston poet, pacifist, suffragist, and author of the lyrics to the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," organized a day encouraging mothers to rally for peace, since she believed they bore the loss of human life more harshly than anyone else.

In 1905 when Anna Jarvis died, her daughter, also named Anna, began a campaign to memorialize the life work of her mother. Legend has it that young Anna remembered a Sunday school lesson that her mother gave in which she said, "I hope and pray that someone, sometime, will found a memorial mother's day. There are many days for men, but none for mothers."

Anna began to lobby prominent businessmen like John Wannamaker, and politicians including Presidents Taft and Roosevelt to support her campaign to create a special day to honor mothers. At one of the first services organized to celebrate Anna's mother in 1908, at her church in West Virginia, Anna handed out her mother's favorite flower, the white carnation. Five years later, the House of Representatives adopted a resolution calling for officials of the federal government to wear white carnations on Mother's Day. In 1914 Anna's hard work paid off when Woodrow Wilson signed a bill recognizing Mother's Day as a national holiday.

Welcome Guests!

to Ray and Miki Roth, married 60 years ago TWICE! First, married "by law" in Erlanger, Germany by OBER BERGES-MEISTER on 5-4-1953, they were united in Christian Marriage by Army Chaplain 5-13-1953. Ray and Miki celebrate two anniversaries each year. They have been Chapel members since July 1, 1988.

Thank you, Sam!

Sam Holmes completes his 12th year as pianist at Big Canoe Chapel this week. Sam, we thank you for your years with us, your dedication, your warm personality, and your extraordinary talent that you have shared with us. We are and have been truly blessed by your leadership in this place called Big Canoe Chapel. God bless you always.

From the BCC Women's Guild

"The flowers today are given in recognition of, and honoring the women of Big Canoe who support their families, their church and their community throughout the year, with special appreciation to the 25th Anniversary Tour of Homes committee chairs and volunteers."
