“For all who are led by the Spirit of God
are children of God.”

Romans 8:14

From the Senior Chaplain

Next Sunday we will be joining millions of other Christians around the world as we celebrate World Wide Communion. It is one of those special days of the year when we are reminded of the universal nature of the Body of Christ. It is also a powerful reminder of the spiritual connection we have with believers in cultures far different than ours. The languages in the sacrament will be varied. But our common ground next Sunday will be the love of Christ shed abroad in our hearts. I hope we gather next Sunday with a prayer and commitment that we will be the instruments of grace to people throughout the earth. As the song says, “Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.”

A reminder about the Christmas blessing ministry will be in this space next Sunday. It is a ministry that has touched thousands of lives over the years. Each year is a tremendous success and we are praying for an unprecedented response this year. This ministry is truly “faith expressing itself through love” and we’re excited to be a part in it.

The Stewardship Campaign begins on Sunday, October 13 and continues through Sunday, October 27. The theme of this year’s campaign is, “Sharing God’s Gifts.” The common testimony among us is that God has blessed us in countless ways and we are humbled by His gifts. The Bible calls them “good and perfect gifts.” And out of an overwhelming sense of gratitude and praise, we are privileged to share those gifts with others and enter into Kingdom building ministry.

We will consider God’s gift of time, God’s gift of talent and God’s gift of treasure as we move through the campaign. Commitment Sunday is October 27 and we will enjoy a celebration dinner in the Broyles Center after the 10:30am service.

These are exciting days for us. The Lord is with us. We have reason to rejoice and be glad.

Blessings and peace,

Len
